If you were fortunate enough to have been born a White (Caucasian) American Male, then you are at the top of the evolutionary and social pyramid. You spring from the God Head. You are the Crown of Creation. It just doesn't get any better. You are the best and brightest and most worthy of all humankind.

Whites are only 16% of the world's population, yet we are the most industrious and innovative race the world has ever known. Whites unlocked the secrets of DNA and relativity, launched satellites, created automation, discovered electricity and nuclear energy, invented automobiles, aircraft, submarines, radio, television, computers, medicine, telephones, light bulbs, photography, and countless other technological miracles.

Whites were the first to circumnavigate the planet by ship, orbit it by spacecraft, walk on the moon, probe beyond the solar system, climb the highest peaks, reach both poles, exceed the sound barrier, and descend to the oceans depths.

Whites were born with the most potential. Just ask yourself, who has been traditionally at the top of the Race and/or National and/or Gender pyramid? Answer - - American-born Caucasian males. We are the high standard against which the rest of the world is judged.

So, if we are truly the "best-of-the-best", then we must ask, who are these useless self-appointed do-gooders, these disgusting Self-Hating Whites who were born with every advantage, but are too quick to be self-deprecating and even quicker to give away their White American birthright?
It’s usually very easy to find these Self-Hating Whites. In a society and culture that has turned itself upside down, it’s more than just the cause du jour, it’s almost a required rite of passage for young naïve White people to denigrate their race, and apologize where no apology is due. They always feel obligated to self-identify.

Quite often, you can spot these useless do-gooders by their college degrees or their trade. It’s almost always a dead giveaway. They’re usually not engineers, or technicians, or scientists, or doctors, or millwrights, or ironworkers, or electricians. More often, they have useless college degrees in "Sociology", or "Black Studies", or "Women's Studies", or "Cultural Studies", or "Media Studies".
These White do-gooders and their negro pals are at their peak of self-importance when they're making a living by leeching off the system, whether it's in academia, business, or government.

Who has led this defamation against Whites? How did the Self-Hating Whites become what they are? We can only conclude that they're indoctrinated, and force-fed a steady diet of propaganda and lies by the media and by our modern-day education system. If you throw a few tons of shit against a wall, surely a pound or two is going to stick.

When George Floyd allegedly mumbled "I Can't Breath", and then died from a self-induced drug overdose while under arrest, how did that incident become national news, and why? News like that doesn’t get national attention unless the left-wing media, and the race agitators decide that it will feed their anti-White agenda.

Sensational "news" doesn’t have to be the truth, but if it fits their agenda, then the media will fan the flames. Flags are lowered, museums and exhibits are built, a commission of inquiry is set up. Police who have to deal with street thugs and trash every day solemnly hang their heads in shame and pretend to grieve for the OD'd nigger. Not unlike MLK day, a new day of remembrance will be created.

And what of the schools, especially colleges and universities? The current focus by liberal academia is to fill their student's heads full of shit, and it seems to be working. College students are being taught that nations have no borders. They are taught to believe that all refugees, asylum-seekers, and illegal aliens should be accepted into the USA, no questions asked. Students are being taught that blacks are inherently innocent and that Whites are inherently evil. The media and the universities build up the White guilt while ignoring White achievement.
Even the various religions are getting in on teaching White guilt. A Self-Hating White may find a place for himself in the new model of "Confessional Christianity". Some churches combine the exhilaration of confessing racial sins, being punished for those imagined sins, and (perhaps) being forgiven with the pleasure of feeling euphoria. So, for some Whites, self-hatred within the church is a powerful narcotic.

But the real evil is America’s politicians. Until we vote all of the bums out, America will never fully recover from the anti-White socialist and communist tyranny. There again, White males must take control. Women of all races, and negroes of any gender, should have never been given the right to vote. Only White males are qualified to choose the course and guide America to recovery.

America’s failing big cities are run by politicians who insist on applying the "equity agenda" and who believe that women and negroes must be elevated above infinitely more qualified White Males. Consequently, the cities are crime-riddled, Whites and Asians who can flee are getting out, and all the while the negroes blame their failures on "White Racism".
White Guilt - - Is that what drives these Self-Hating Whites? I fully admit, my great-great-grandfather purchased some now-obsolete farm equipment from some Portuguese slave-traders, who in turn had bought the slaves at a Northern African slave market that was operated by Persians and Arabs. The slave market’s supply of slaves came from one African tribe who captured other Africans and sold them to the towel-heads. Talk about a supply chain management problem.

My great-great-grandfather owned and operated sawmills near what is now Lumber City, Georgia. His negro slaves were not picking cotton, they were cutting down trees. Regardless, at the end of the War of Northern Aggression in 1865, he was forced to give up all of his slaves, and the sawmill went out of business.

I feel no guilt that my great-great-grandfather was suckered into buying primitive savages, but I do feel great sorrow for the 625,000 White soldiers (North plus South) who lost their lives between 1861 and 1865. President Lincoln’s original plan was to preserve the Union, and to ultimately ship all the freed slaves back to Africa. Regrettably, that didn't happen, and now we're stuck with the useless descendents of those slaves.
The long-term cure will finally be realized when American White Nationalist Males recover their natural positions of leadership and authority in the family and in the community. Move out of the inner-city, and most especially move into one of the freer States that declares its status as a Constitutional Sanctuary. Create your own business opportunities. Put your children in all-White private schools. Disavow the anti-White moral panic and collective lunacy.

Lastly, be prepared. Stock up on ammunition, food, medication, water filters, fuel, and etc. Be prepared to either bug-out, or hunker down with your family.
